Sifu Reginald Cann

Dr. Sifu Reginald Cann, B.Sc., OBT, HHP, MTOM, L.Ac., DiplAc., MMQ, OMD, is a Licensed Board-Certified Acupuncturist and Clinical Herbalist. Dr. Sifu Cann is the founder and director of COHA HEALTH. He is Bermuda's foremost pioneer introducing Bermuda to Acupuncture, Oriental Medicine, Tai-Ji, and the specialised Asian health preserving art of Qi Gong (Chi-Kung) in 1989.

Sifu, as he is respectfully addressed by his patients, is nationally certified and designated a "Diplomate" in acupuncture by the National Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM). He has trained in China, Cypress, Japan, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Singapore, and Thailand.

A graduate of (PCOM), Pacific College of Oriental Medicine, San Diego, CA. PCOM, is "The Harvard" of acupuncture/oriental medical colleges in the USA. During his internship, he did clinical rounds at a Western Medical Center, Hospice Center, Olympic training center, treating elite athletes, and at PCOM's medical clinic.

While at PCOM, Sifu completed other degree certifications: Oriental Body Therapy (OBT), Holistic Health Practitioner (HHP), and Tui-Na, Chinese Medical Massage. Sifu is an Advanced Tui-Na practitioner and is also certified in Kinesiology.

A graduate of the Institute for Integrative Nutrition with a degree as a Holistic Health Counselor certified by the health counseling training program by Teachers College Columbia University (NY), the center for educational outreach and innovation. He is a member of American Association of Drugless Practitioners.

Dr. Sifu Cann completed Advance Acupuncture in Biomedical Acupuncture for pain management, an area he is passionate about treating. Additionally, he also trained in trigger point dry needling methods. At McMaster University Medical School Dept of Anesthesiology, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, he completed training in Contemporary Medical Acupuncture with Cadaver-Neuro Anatomical laboratory studies. He also completed training in Integrative Health Strategies and Contemporary Acupuncture for Internal Medicine, stress related conditions and women's health issues. At McMaster, he is recognised as a member of the Canadian Contemporary Acupuncture Association.

Dr. Sifu Cann, with over 25 years of clinical experience, has a passion to educate and integrate evidence-based Complementary Medicine and Biomedicine for the best clinical outcomes for all deserving patients. It is his wish to work with, not against local Western-trained physicians to move healthcare into the new dimension it deserves – Integrative Medicine.

At COHA HEALTH, our goal is to get our patients well physically and emotionally. Dr. Sifu Cann has dedicated his life to building a clinic, which treats every aspect of the patient's life and well being.
